

Halon Alternatives for Aircraft Propulsion Systems (HAAPS)

Fernando Wright Cardoso, Embraer

HAAPS has been progressing steadily towards completion of the intermediate phase II. Schedule update to be provided and latest and next short term milestones on topics such as scope and future framework and candidates selection process. Additionally the final phase III preparations and planning status where the selected finalists are going to be developed and validated to be ready for future aircraft propulsive systems certifications.